

The decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to use its enormous media clout in order to air a blatantly anti-Kerry TV show shortly before the election is yet another example of Americans losing the right to free expression. Please stop Sinclair from being allowed to air their propaganda without requiring them to present a show that presents the opposite view. Do we really live in a democracy or is everything we hear and read only the product of large media interests?